

Software Applications Maintenance & Support (“M&S”) Services

Unless otherwise agreed in a signed writing, PDF Solutions will provide to current customers of support & maintenance for software applications (each, a “Customer”) the following standard M&S Services.

Section 1. Definitions

As used herein, the following terms are defined as follows:

- a) “Business Hours” means 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM Pacific time, European Central time and Taipei Standard time, Monday through Friday, excluding PDF-observed local holidays.
- b) “Error” means a material failure of the Software to operate in accordance with the functional specifications for the Software set forth in the applicable PDF Solutions documentation for such Software.
- c) “Error Correction” means either (i) a software modification or addition that, when made or added to the Software, corrects an Error, or (ii) a procedure or routine that, when observed in the operation of the Software, eliminates or reduces the practical adverse effect of an Error on Customer.
- d) “Software” means the PDF Solutions software applications under valid license to Customer, and any improvements, enhancements, modifications, Updates and releases thereof delivered by PDF Solutions to Customer in connection therewith.
- e) “M&S Period” means that period that PDF has agreed to provide services hereunder (e.g., by accepting Customer’s purchase order, or issuing an invoice, etc.) and for which Customer has paid the applicable support fees to PDF Solutions.
- f) “Update” means any revision, update, release, enhancement or other modification to the Software that PDF Solutions generally makes available to licensees of the Software that receive M&S Services from PDF Solutions. Update does not include any optional, separately priced features/modules or software product with substantially new or additional significant features that may be developed by PDF Solutions in the future and made generally available to its customers.

Section 2. Technical Support; Tutorials

PDF Solutions will provide to Customer a reasonable amount of telephone and email assistance with the installation and use of the Software during Business Hours. In addition, for certain Software Applications, PDF may make video tutorials and release notes available on its support web site.

Section 3. Error Corrections

Errors are classified into three severity classes, as follows:

- a) “Severity 1” or “Critical Error” means an Error that renders the Software inoperative or causes it to fail catastrophically.
- b) “Severity 2” or “Serious Error” means an Error that materially affects the performance of critical functions of the Software but does not qualify as a Critical Error.
- c) “Severity 3” or “Mild Error” means an Error that does not materially affect the performance of critical functions of the Software.

Subject to Sections 5 and 6 below, PDF Solutions will respond to Customer as follows with respect to Errors that Customer identifies to PDF Solutions using its web-based notification system or telephone, as indicated by PDF:

- a) Severity 1 / Critical Errors. PDF Solutions will promptly confirm receipt of Customer’s notification and assign resources until an Error Correction has been provided to Customer.
- b) Severity 2 / Serious Errors. PDF Solutions will promptly confirm receipt of Customer’s notification and use commercially reasonable efforts to develop and provide an Error Correction to Customer.
- c) Severity 3 / Mild Errors. PDF Solutions will promptly confirm receipt of Customer’s notification and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide an Error Correction in the next Update.

Section 4. Updates

During the M&S Period, PDF Solutions will provide Customer with Updates if, as and when PDF makes any such Updates generally available during the M&S Period. PDF Solutions will deliver Updates electronically to Customer by making them available for download. Update does not include any optional, separately priced features/modules that may be developed by PDF Solutions in the future and made generally available from time to time to its customers.

Section 5. Conditions and Exclusions

PDF Solutions’ response times under Section 3 above are subject to the following:

- a) Customer makes reasonable efforts to solve the reported Error after consulting with PDF Solutions;
- b) Customer provides PDF Solutions with sufficient information and resources to correct the reported Error either at PDF Solutions’ customer support center via remote access at

Customer's site, as well as access to the personnel, hardware and any additional software involved in discovering or analyzing the Error;

- c) Customer procures, installs and maintains all equipment, Internet connection, telephone lines, communication interfaces and other hardware necessary to operate the Software; and
- d) Customer has paid all M&S fees when due, and is otherwise in compliance with PDF Solutions' standard license terms and conditions or, if applicable, all terms of the written agreement between PDF and Customer applicable to such Software.

PDF Solutions will have no obligation in connection with any support requests related to, or Errors caused by:

- a) abuse, misuse, change, modification, Customer or third party enhancement, or damage to any Software;
- b) third party hardware or software not provided by PDF Solutions;
- c) Customer's failure to install any Updates; or
- d) Customer's negligence or other causes beyond the reasonable control of PDF Solutions.

With respect to any problem reported by Customer that is caused by any of the foregoing, Customer will pay PDF Solutions for the diagnosis and correction of such problem at PDF Solutions' standard time and materials rate, and Customer will reimburse PDF Solutions for its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing such diagnosis and correction.

Section 6. Supported Versions

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, PDF Solutions' responses under Section 3 above will apply to each version of the Software (e.g., 6.X) only for a period of twenty-four (24) months after it was initially released by PDF Solutions.
